EMPOWERING YOUNG MOTHERS
TRANSFORMING FUTURES

2023 - 2025 Strategic Plan

MISSION, HISTORY, AND PROGRAM

Our Mission

YoungMoms equips pregnant and parenting young women with the support, resources, and skills needed to overcome obstacles, minimize social inequities, and build a strong foundation for their families.

Equity

We are committed to our mission that every young mom will have what they need to create a strong foundation for their family.

Our Vision

YoungMoms envisions a community where every pregnant and parenting young woman can thrive.

Our History

YoungMoms started as a program of The Garage Community & Youth Center in Kennett Square, PA in the fall of 2010. On January 1, 2016, we became our own 501(c)3 non-profit organization.

Over the past 13 years, YoungMoms has helped more than 240 young women in our local community overcome challenges, achieve goals, and create a more stable future for themselves and their families.

Our Program

YoungMoms equips pregnant and parenting young women with the support, resources, and skills needed to overcome obstacles, minimize social inequities, and build a strong foundation for their families. We assist 65-70 pregnant and parenting young women annually. Our clients enter the program between the ages of 14 and 21 years old and reside in southern Chester County, PA. These young women face substantial challenges as they navigate adolescence and motherhood while also facing the challenging obstacles of poverty, incomplete education, unemployment, housing instability, domestic violence, language barriers, isolation, lack of health care, and depression. Each young mom who enters our program is encouraged by their case manager to dream of a bright and stable future for herself and her child, even when her circumstances make it feel impossible.

We continue to serve an increasing number of clients who have immigrated from Central America, especially Guatemala. These young women are typically very high-risk and high need. Many of them come from backgrounds of trauma and poverty, many do not speak Spanish or English proficiently (those from Guatemala, for example, speak one of several native dialects and have limited Spanish-speaking abilities), and some have never completed their elementary education. Often these young women come with very limited, if any, family support in the U.S. As a result, our case managers must work much more intensively to overcome these challenges and connect these young women to the resources they need to achieve life stability for themselves and their children as they establish roots in our community.

We accomplish our mission through a combination of highly specialized case management, one-to-one mentoring, and monthly workshops with life skills training. Our team of case managers works with each young mom to develop short- and long-term goals, create a plan to achieve them, and connect them with area resources to support their families. We provide our clients with educational & vocational assistance, parenting education, and personal development tools.

Teen moms are in the unique position of continuing to develop as adolescents while being responsible for the development of their young children. Staff and mentors provide ongoing life skills instruction in areas such as healthy relationships, nutrition, financial responsibility, and budgeting. We teach our young moms effective communication, conflict resolution, decision-making, and time management skills. Parenting instruction and encouragement are provided in areas such as child developmental milestones, discipline, play, and raising a bilingual child.

YoungMoms empowers these young women to take control of their lives and equips them with new skills (i.e., self-advocacy, self-worth, organizational, executive, and decision-making skills) to face challenging circumstances and overcome obstacles. Our individualized, comprehensive, and long-term support makes an intergenerational impact. There is no similarly individualized and comprehensive support program in our area that provides the combination of case management support, life skills instruction, one-to-one mentoring, and community building activities. Young moms remain in our program for up to four years. This long-term investment allows us to assist them in overcoming significant obstacles, help them achieve their goals, and makes our program unique and life changing.

CONCLUSION

We are challenged and inspired by our new Strategic Plan, and hope that our volunteers, friends and supporters will be as well. The guidelines, policies, directions, and vision of the Plan will be regarded by us as the authority in providing direction for Board and staff decisions in the coming years.

However, the success and value of any Strategic Plan are dependent on its implementation. To that end, the Board of Directors and the Executive Director are committed to utilizing the Plan as a guide, with bi-monthly reviews of its status.

In addition, the following strategies will be implemented:

1. Each section of the plan will be assigned to a Board or staff member(s), who will be responsible for ensuring its timely implementation, including providing reports to the Board of Directors at Board meetings.
2. The Plan will be used to structure the Executive Director's reports to the Board of Directors.
3. The Board and staff will develop and utilize a formal evaluation process to:
 - Verify individuals/committees are completing action items in the assigned time period.
 - Prioritize goals and assure high priority issues receive proper attention.
 - If opportunities present themselves that require YOUNGMOMS to act in a way that is counter to the plan, the Board and staff will use the same amount of extensive thought and documentation in making that decision as they did in writing the original plan. Those thoughts will be reflected in an addendum to the original plan.
